ZONING AG-3

In Broomfield, the property sits within the AG-3 zoning category, a legacy zoning district inherited from its original annexation into the city. This zoning allows for grandfathered uses from its Adams County origins.

Broomfield's 2016 comprehensive plan designates the property as mixed-use, enabling diverse applications such as residential, commercial, and industrial purposes. This unique zoning combination provides a versatile canvas for a range of potential developments.

Where suburban tranquility meets Colorado's tech and cultural vibrancy!

Bridging Denver and Boulder, Broomfield epitomizes suburban living at its best. This city, part of the Denver-Aurora-Lakewood area, is strategically nestled along the U.S. 36 tech corridor. Residents relish the city's excellent quality of life, with a short average commute of just 26 minutes. Broomfield boasts a vibrant job market, home to industry giants like Level 3 Communications and Vail Resorts. Nature enthusiasts love the 8,000 acres of open space and 280 miles of trails, while shoppers and foodies enjoy a variety of offerings at FlatIron Crossing. Housing options range from affordable homes to executive mansions, ensuring something for every lifestyle. Cultural events thrive at the city's 1stBank Center, hosting concerts, rodeos, and fairs. Beer aficionados also have a haven here, with local breweries like 4 Noses and Rails End Beer adding to the city's charm.
